University of Pennsylvania. Bureau of Publicity
Grounds along the Schuylkill
Photograph Collection, 1934 - 1944

UPX 12
29 items

Access is granted in accordance with the Protocols for the University Archives and Records Center.

The Bureau of Publicity of the University of Pennsylvania merged with the Recorder's Office in 1912. George Erazmus Nitzsche served as the administrator of this office from 1902 to 1946.

The 29 photographic prints in this collection present aerial views of the grounds along the Schuylkill River belonging to the University. Represented in the views are: the South Street Bridge, Convention Hall, Franklin Field, property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Woodlands Cemetery, the University Museum, the Commercial Museum, and the athletic fields.

INVENTORY

Publicity Office Photographs of the University of Pennsylvania Grounds along the Schuylkill River

All the photographs are 8 by 10 inch sepia prints

Photographs taken on 20 June 1913

No. 1  View of the west bank of the river looking southwest from the South Street Bridge.
No. 2  View from the South Street Bridge at west river bank looking towards Convention Hall.
No. 3  View from the west river bank looking southwest towards the Pennsylvania Railroad Bridge over the river.
No. 4  View from the west river bank looking towards the Convention Hall.
No. 5  View from the west river bank looking towards the University Museum.
No. 6  View from the west river bank looking towards Franklin Field.
No. 7  View on the west river bank looking northeast towards the South Street bridge.
No. 8  View from the southwest end of the river property, by the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge over the river, looking north.
No. 9  View from the west river bank at the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge looking northeast towards the South Street bridge.
No. 11 View from the west river bank at the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge looking west.
No. 12 View from the west river bank at the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge looking southwest.
No. 13 View from the elevated Pennsylvania Railroad tracks looking towards the railroad bridge over the river.
No. 14 View from the elevated Pennsylvania Railroad tracks looking southeast across the river.
No. 15 View from the elevated Pennsylvania Railroad tracks looking east across the river towards the Naval Home.
No. 16 View from the elevated Pennsylvania Railroad tracks looking towards the South Street bridge. Corner of photograph cut.
No. 17 View from the elevated Pennsylvania Railroad tracks at the intersection of Cleveland Avenue looking towards the Almshouse.
No. 18 View from the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks above Cleveland Avenue looking towards the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.
Photographs Taken in 1910 of the University Extension Grounds along the Schuylkill, by Walter Rodgers

All the photographs are 5 3/8 by 7 1/2 inch sepia prints.

A  View from the South Street bridge at the west river bank looking southeast.
B  View of the playing field by the river looking towards the Woodlands Cemetery.
C  View from the west river bank at the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge looking northeast towards the South Street bridge.
D  View on 34th Street above Convention Hall looking towards the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.
E  View from the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks near Cleveland Street looking north towards the Philadelphia Commercial Museum.
F  View of “Phila Museums Ground from rear.”
G  View of “Philadelphia Museums” from 34th Street.
H  View from Pennsylvania Railroad looking northeast towards the South Street bridge.
I  Philadelphia Museum; Side view of building from 34th Street.
J  View of the playing field looking east across the river.
K  View of the playing field looking east across the river.